1 Chapter Charter

1.1 Name

The name of this chapter shall be Mu Chapter of Eta Kappa Nu (HKN); hereafter referred to as the Chapter. On campus, the Chapter may be referred to as Mu Chapter of Eta Kappa Nu; Mu Chapter, Eta Kappa Nu; HKN; Eta Kappa Nu, Mu Chapter; or Eta Kappa Nu.

1.2 Location

This chapter shall be located at the Berkeley campus of the University of California.

1.3 Founding Date

Mu Chapter was founded on December 18th, 1915.

1.4 Mission Statement

Eta Kappa Nu is the honor society comprised of Electrical Engineers and Computer Scientists. The mission of the Chapter is to recognize outstanding students, faculty, and professionals in IEEE technical fields of interest with a particular focus on the traditional fields of electrical engineering, computer engineering, and computer science. IEEE-HKN chapters promote excellence in the profession and in education through an emphasis on scholarship, character, and attitude. Chapters further strive to foster community and cooperation among its active members and the host department(s) as well as other local honor societies and the local IEEE student branch. The Chapter also encourages members to engage with the local community through service and outreach programs.

1.5 Purpose

The organization's purpose are as follows:

1. To uphold the purposes and ideals of the Eta Kappa Nu Association as set forth in the Association's Constitution and By-Laws.
2. To promote and encourage excellence in electrical engineering and computer science education for the betterment of fellow students, the EECS department, the College of Engineering and the public at large.

3. To promote and encourage among the students of the University of California, Berkeley, a desire for higher scholastic standing and greater knowledge in the studies prescribed in the electrical engineering and computer science curriculum.
4. To foster a spirit of respect and cooperation with the faculty of the University of California, Berkeley.
5. To foster relations with the local community through service and outreach.
6. To cooperate with the other organizations on campus.

1.6 Symbols and Logos of the Chapter

The Chapter shall use the official symbols of IEEE-Eta Kappa Nu Chapter including the emblem, shield, and colors as detailed in the IEEE-Eta Kappa Nu Operations Manual.

2 Governance of the Chapter

2.1 Orders of Governance

This Constitution shall be the official guiding and governing document of Mu Chapter of Eta Kappa Nu and are subject to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Eta Kappa Nu Association and to future changes in those documents. The rules governing this organization for conducting business shall be, in order of precedence:

- The IEEE-Eta Kappa Nu Operations Manual
- The IEEE-Eta Kappa Nu Process Manual

11 ASUC Sponsorship, Funding, and Space

This organization hereby wishes to seek ASUC sponsorship. This organization adopts and incorporates by reference Schedule A of ASUC Bylaw 2201, and the same as may be amended from time by time, completely and fully as part of this [constitution, charter, articles, etc]. This organization cannot amend this clause unless and until the ASUC has certified that this organization has ceased to be ASUC-sponsored, all ASUC property has been returned to the ASUC, access to all ASUC resources and facilities has been relinquished, and any debts, liabilities, or other responsibilities to the ASUC have been resolved. This organization will continue to be bound by any provisions specified in Schedule A for actions it took while this clause was in effect, even if this clause is amended.

11.1 Schedule A

1 This organization is organized and operated exclusively for nonprofit purposes. The property of this organization is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes specified in its primary governing document and no part of the net income or assets of this organization shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person.

2 This organization recognizes that current or past ASUC sponsorship or funding does not imply a guarantee of continued or future sponsorship or funding and that status as a university registered student organization does not guarantee status as an ASUC-sponsored student organization or ASUC funding.

3 The ultimate constitutional, budgetary, and policy making authority of this organization shall be vested entirely and exclusively in ASUC members, at least a majority of whom shall be undergraduate students. Only ASUC members may hold officer positions in this organization. This section shall not be interpreted to prevent non-ASUC members from holding advisory positions in the organization.

4 This organization is not a unit of the ASUC or of the University of California. Unless otherwise specified in its primary governing document, this organization shall be considered an unincorporated association organized under the laws of California.

5 All funds, facilities, and resources allocated or provided to this organization by the ASUC (including the Graduate Assembly) during the term of its sponsorship shall remain the property of the ASUC at all times. If the organization ceases to be sponsored or ceases to exist, all ASUC property and unspent funds shall be immediately returned to the ASUC (including the Graduate Assembly).

5.1 Any property [## other long term property / subscriptions] purchased by this organization using funds provided to it by the ASUC (including the Graduate Assembly) shall be the property of the ASUC. The ASUC shall retain ownership proportional to its contribution in any property purchased partially with ASUC funds.

6 This organization may use funds, facilities, and resources allocated or provided to it by the ASUC (including the Graduate Assembly) only for purposes which promote the general welfare of the student body and which are not inconsistent with the meaning of United States Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3).

6.1 Funds, facilities, and resources allocated or provided to this organization by the ASUC (including the Graduate Assembly) shall not be used to participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office or for activities which primarily consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

7 This organization shall follow all regulations found in the ASUC Constitution and Bylaws during the term of ASUC sponsorship.

8 All disputes involving this organization may be resolved by mandatory binding arbitration through the ASUC Judicial Council.

8.1 The ASUC Judicial Council shall operate in accordance with the ASUC Constitution and the Judicial Council Rules of Procedure.

8.2 The ASUC Judicial Council shall have the power to order any remedy it sees fit. Mandatory binding arbitration may be initiated against the organization by:

8.2.1 Any member of this organization

8.2.2 Any member of the ASUC

8.2.3 Another ASUC-sponsored organization, the ASUC, or any unit of the ASUC

8.2.4 A unit of the University of California, with the consent of the ASUC Judicial Council

8.2.5 Any other person or entity, with the consent of this organization and the ASUC Judicial Council.

9 This organization shall defend, indemnify and hold the ASUC, its officers, officials, employees and volunteers harmless from any and all claims, injuries, damages, losses or suits including attorney fees, arising out of or resulting from the acts, errors or omissions of this organization in relation to its relationship with the ASUC, except for injuries and damages caused by the sole negligence of the ASUC.

10 All officers and authorized representatives of this organization are individually and jointly responsible for the financial obligations of the organization to the ASUC, incurred by this organization during the tenure of the officer or authorized representative. This shall include any damage or defacement of ASUC property.

11 All books and records of this organization shall be subject to inspection by the ASUC Judicial Council, ASUC Chief Financial Office, ASUC Chief Legal Officer, and ASUC professional legal counsel. These individuals may make copies and extracts of such records.

12 Upon the dissolution or winding up of this organization, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to the ASUC, unless the primary governing document of the organization has specified some other nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable or educational purposes, to receive such funds. In the event that the designated organization no longer exists or has ceased to be a non-profit organization, the distribution shall be made to the ASUC.

14 This organization shall be considered dissolved if it is inactive and (a) fails to register as a student organization with the University for more than five full academic years or (b) it ceases to have any members. The ASUC shall have the authority to wind-up the affairs of this organization in such case, but shall not assume any responsibility for any debts or liabilities of this organization.

12 Amendments

12.1 Ratification

Amendment of these chapter Constitution must be approved by a unanimous vote of all active members present at regular meetings or by a two-thirds majority vote of all active members present at general meetings. The amended Chapter Constitution will become effective upon:

1. The required Chapter vote.
2. Receipt of approval from any required university organization.
3. Approval by the HKN Executive Council.

All amendments, additions or deletions to this document must be filed with the LEAD Center in 432 Eshleman Hall.

12.2 Student Activities and Services

If this organization is a registered student group with the Student Activities and Services (102 Hearst Gym), no amendment may conflict with University of California regulations pertaining to registered student groups, and the Student Activities and Services must have an up to date copy of this document at all times.

12.3 Associated Students of the University of California

If this organization receives sponsorship or funding from the Associated Students of the University of California, no amendment may conflict with Associated Students of the University of California regulations pertaining to sponsored or funded student groups, and the Office of Student Affairs of the Associated Students of the University of California must have an up to date copy of this document at all times.

13 Dissolution

The property of this chapter is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this chapter shall ever inure to the benefit of any officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person, or any organization not 501(c)(3) qualified by the IRS. Upon dissolution of the chapter, any assets remaining after payment, or provision of payment, of all debts and liabilities of the organization shall be returned to Eta Kappa Nu headquarters, which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and has established its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

If the organization is ASUC or GA Sponsored, all unspent ASUC funds shall return to the ASUC; all Graduate Assembly funds shall return to the Graduate Assembly. If the organization is defunct for five (5) or more years, any privately obtained funds (including any funds left in miscellaneous accounts) shall be donated to the ASUC.
